MRS. MILO BLAIR'S DEATH

PASSED AWAY AT HER HOME ON OHIO AVENUE AT 7:10
P. M. THURSDAY.

SHE WAS BEDFAST ONLY TWO DAYS

Remains Will Be Taken to Boonville
Sunday Morning for Burial
After Brief Service at Residence Here.

Mrs. Sallie E. Blair, widow of Milo Blair, former editor of the Sedalia Eagle and for two terms postmaster of this city, died at her home, 1403 South Ohio avenue, at 7:10 o'clock last night, after a two days' illness with a complication of diseases, aged 81 years.

Mrs. Blair had not been in good health for some time past, but she had been bedfast only about forty-eight hours when the final summons came.

The remains will be taken to Boonville, the former home of the deceased, Sunday morning, for interment, after a brief burial service at the house, conducted by the Rev. J. F. Caskey, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South.

Mrs. Blair was born at Zanesville, O., June 18, 1827. She was twice married, her first husband being Harvey S. Allen, to whom she was wedded in St. Louis, and who died in that city in the 60s.

Three children were born of the union, of whom one, a son, Charles H. Allen, of this city, survives, he having made his home with his mother for several years, doing everything possible to make pleasant the declining years of her life.

Mrs. Allen was married the second time to Milo Blair in Boonville Mo., in 1870, he at that time being editor of the Boonville Eagle. In 1887 Mr. and Mrs. Blair came to Sedalia, where the former died twelve years ago last June.

Mrs. Blair was a member of the First Congregational church, and her entire life was one of Christian consistency. She did much in behalf of charity in an unostentatious way, and many who have been the recipients of aid at her hands will read of her demise with deepest sorrow.

at Auburn, Cal.

Writing to the Democrat-Sentinel from Auburn, Cal., under date of August 9, Col. Van B. Wisker a former Sedalian, says:

"The heat has been excessive during past six weeks. Thermometer has ranged from 90 to 106 at 4 p. m. on our cool and shaded back porch but, thank God our household has been blessed with health.

"Grandchildren are looking fine. We old people (Mrs. W. and self) of course have to be careful not to over-exert ourselves. Will be able to send you account of some strange events shortly. With all the old-time interest in the general prosperity and well-doing of all in Sedalia, Yours, Van B. Wisker."

$2 CAUSED HER DEATH

YOUNG MURDERER OF WOMAN IS ALLEGED TO HAVE CONFESSED.

HE TOLD THE STORY OF HIS CRIME

Said He Tried to Borrow Two Dollars
From Former Landlady, and Upon Her Refusal He Killed and Robbed Her.

St. Louis, Aug. 14.—Thomas Dewitt, aged 24 years, in an alleged confession made to the police of this city today, told how he killed his former landlady, Mrs. Adeline Muller, aged 49, at her home Wednesday.

"I didn't mean to kill her," Dewitt is alleged to have said. "I stuffed the stocking in her mouth because she was trying to scream."

The cause of the struggle which resulted in the woman's death was her refusal to loan Dewitt $2. After the murder he took what money he could find and escaped.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Mrs. R. C. McVey and Her 2-Year-Old Son, Thomas.

Mrs. R. C. McVey and 2-year-old son, Thomas, of 719 East Fifteenth street, were painfully bruised about their bodies in a runaway accident in the vicinity of their home at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

They were riding in company with Mrs. G. S. Henderson and Mrs. Higgins, when their horse took fright at a boy carrying a tub on his head. The animal swerved to one side and turned, throwing Mrs. McVey and son to the ground, with the result that the right side of Mrs. McVey's body was considerably bruised, while the baby's head and face sustained several contusions. Both of the other occupants were uninjured.

Drs. Cole and Cowan were the attending physicians.

ville, Florida.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 14.—Rear Admiral James Kelsey Cogswell, of the United States navy, retired, is dead at Jacksonville, Florida.

DEATH OF W. M. RAYMOND

He Was Once Advertising Manager of
the Sedalia Democrat.

William M. Raymond, for a year or more advertising manager of the old Sedalia Democrat, died at La Jolla, Colo., August 6th, and was buried at Newton, Kas., August 10th.

Mr. Raymond was born near Lawrence, Kas., near which city the greater part of his life was spent. He graduated from the state university with the class of 1893 and soon thereafter took up newspaper work, continuing therein in Topeka, Kansas City, Leavenworth and Sedalia until 1901, when he accepted a position as traveling salesman for Swift & Co., his duties taking him largely through the south.

About three years ago he gave up this line of work and located on a farm near Lawrence, where he continued to reside until about sixty days ago, when his health compelled him to seek a higher altitude, although he derived no benefit from the change,

MEMORY WAS RESTORED

BY READING ADVERTISEMENT
PRINTED IN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

MAN THUS FOUND OUT WHO HE IS

Frank McGlynn, Picked Up at Grand Rapids, Michigan, Is Identified
as Living at Poughkeepsie,
New York.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 14.—A young man who was picked up here suffering from a total loss of memory has been identified as Frank McGlynn, of Poughkeepsie. The circumstances under which the identification was effected were peculiar.

McGlynn was given a bundle of magazines to read and came across the advertisement of a Cleveland clothing firm, which brought back to his memory a familiar name, and he suddenly cried out: "I've got it!" and dropped the magazine to the floor.

The nurse in attendance rushed to his side, but he was unable to remember what he had read. For an hour the attendant examined every page of the magazine with the young fellow and finally found it. He declared he had a brother-in-law by the name of Shultz with a Cleveland firm.

The latter was reached by telephone and said he did have a brother-in-law answering the description named Frank McGlynn, who was injured in a football game in the east and who was subject to loss of memory.

DEATH OF W. M. RAYMOND

He Was Once Advertising Manager of
the Sedalia Democrat.

William M. Raymond, for a year or more advertising manager of the old Sedalia Democrat, died at La Jolla, Colo., August 6th, and was buried at Newton, Kas., August 10th.

Mr. Raymond was born near Lawrence, Kas., near which city the greater part of his life was spent. He graduated from the state university with the class of 1893 and soon thereafter took up newspaper work, continuing therein in Topeka, Kansas City, Leavenworth and Sedalia until 1901, when he accepted a position as traveling salesman for Swift & Co., his duties taking him largely through the south.

About three years ago he gave up this line of work and located on a farm near Lawrence, where he continued to reside until about sixty days ago, when his health compelled him to seek a higher altitude, although he derived no benefit from the change, and passed away at La Veta, Colo., on August 6th.

On December 28, 1898, he was married in Newton, Kas., to Dora Bowman, who preceded him to the great beyond on June 18, 1901. On September 25, 1906, he was married to Ola Bowman, who survives him.

WAS RELEASED ON BOND

JACK GALLAGHER, WHO WAS COMMITTED TO THE KANSAS CITY WORKHOUSE.

HAD ASSAULTED ALBERT H. KING

An Appeal From Police Court Allowed
the Ex-Saloon Man by Judge Wallace When Taken Into Court Last Evening.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 14.—Judge Wallace, of the criminal court, granted an appeal yesterday to Jack Gallagher, who was sentenced to the city workhouse.

Gallagher, a saloonkeeper and former policeman, was sent to the workhouse for failure to pay $1,000 in fines assessed against him in police court for disturbing the peace of Albert H. King, a reporter, whom he had previously attacked and beaten on the street within a few feet of police headquarters.

Judge Wallace would not permit Clinton Langsdale, city attorney, to argue the matter of the police judge's reasons for refusing a bond for Gallagher.

Gallagher's attorneys offered Frank Keenan and M. S. Crane as bondsmen. The judge refused them. They did not own enough property, the judge said, to qualify on the bond of $2,200 the court fixed. The judge was about to remand Gallagher to jail until this morning, when a plea was made for further time to get another bondsman there.

The judge said he would wait. Half an hour later J. O. Middleton, a contractor, qualified on the bond, and Gallagher left the court room.

Devastated the Town.

Salina, Kas., Aug. 14.—Fire at Palco, Kas., 100 miles west of Salina, last night, destroyed the main business block of the town.

NENCE UNION.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC DENOUNCED

Mrs. L. M. Lake, of St. Louis, Well Known in Sedalia, Elected Third Vice President—Meet in Chicago Next Year.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 14.—Denunciation of the liquor traffic, an appeal for sanctification of Sunday, and the exclusion from membership in Catholic societies of those engaged in the liquor traffic, were the striking features of the resolutions adopted by the national convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union yesterday.

The work of the convention closed with the election of the following officers: President, the Rev. James T. Coffey, St. Louis; first vice president, the Rev. J. B. Beane, Philadelphia; second vice president, John J. Corbett, New Haven; third vice president, Mrs. L. M. Lake, St. Louis; treasurer, the Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan, Chicago; secretary, Elwin Mulready, Rockland, Mass.

A congratulatory cablegram was received from Rome in answer to a message sent by the convention.

An invitation to hold the next convention in Chicago was accepted.

BALLOON BURNED UP

With It Two Persons Were Killed and Six Badly Injured.

London, Aug. 14.—Two persons were killed and six injured by an explosion this morning at the grounds of the Franco-British exhibition, of the envelope of a balloon owned by Capt. Lovelace, of the New York Aero club.

Miss Hill, aged 18, secretary to Lovelace, was one of the persons killed. She was burned to a cinder. The other person killed was a man, and those who sustained injuries were men employed by Lovelace.

Lovelace's clothes were burned, but otherwise he sustained no injuries.

LOST HIS FIGHT ON FUSION

The Secretary of State Rules Against Victor Rosewater.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 14.—Victor Rosewater, republican national committeeman from Nebraska, was again defeated in his struggle to destroy fusion in Nebraska yesterday when the secretary of state ruled that Sophus Noble, of the Second congressional district, may be entered on the primary ballot as a candidate for election on the populist as well as the democratic ticket.

The national committeeman protested on the ground that the populist party did not cast 1 per cent of the vote of the last election, as required by law to secure representation on the ballots.

The protest has been overruled by the secretary of state and Cole will be classed as both democrat and populist on the ballot. The protest against Noble is the last to be decided. Fusion was permitted by the secretary in the other protested cases.

Vagrant Was Fined $25.

One vagrant was fined $25 by Police Judge Graham today.

BODY OF DANIEL BOONE

IS BURIED IN WARREN COUNTY, MISSOURI, AND NOT IN KENTUCKY.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR ARGUMENT

Rev. R. E. McQuie Declares the Remains Removed to Kentucky
Were Not the Pioneer's,
But a Stranger's.

Montgomery, Mo., Aug. 14.—Rev. R. E. McQuie, a Baptist minister residing in this city, in an article in a local paper, says:

"In company with some of the old settlers of that community I visited the Bryan graveyard, near Marthasville, Warren county, the burial place of Daniel Boone.

"After gathering all the information possible relative to the remains of this old pioneer, the company decided, unanimously, that it was evident that the body of Daniel Boone was never removed to Kentucky, but that the men who went out from Kentucky to remove the remains, being strangers, and there being no tombstones to mark the graves of those who slept in the old cemetery, made a mistake and took up the remains of a stranger who was buried near the grave of Mrs. Boone, Daniel Boone and his wife not having been buried side by side, hence the mistake."

McQuie's article will arouse considerable interest, especially in Missouri and Kentucky.

WARRANT FOR A DEAD MAN

Who Was Charged With Illegal Voting in Sedalia.

One of the men included in the list of six alleged illegal voters, for whom warrants were issued from the Four Courts Tuesday, will have to answer to a higher "judge" than Judges Rickman, Leaming or Clark, according to C. S. Williams, who filed complaint against the men.

Charles F. Tucker, for whom Judge Rickman issued a warrant, died at Kansas City two months ago. At the time complaint was made C. S. Williams did not know of Tucker's death, hence the warrant was recalled this morning.

Will Mr. Taft Visit Sedalia?

A letter from Hon. William H. Taft, republican nominee for president, to John T. Stinson, secretary of the Missouri state fair, states that the invitation extended to him by Mr. Stinson to attend the eighth annual fair here is in the hands of the nominee's executive committee. A definite reply to the invitation is expected within a few days.

MOTHER SAVES HER BABE

CLIMBS THE JAGGED WALL OF A WELL INTO WHICH IN-FANT PLUNGED.

ASCENT AIDED BY WINDLESS ROPE

Falls in Faint After Reaching Surface, Revives and Restores Life to Child, in Callaway County, Missouri.

Fulton, Mo., Aug. 14.—With a mother's disregard of danger when her offspring is in peril, and at the risk of her own life, Mrs. J. B. Stephenson, a fair little woman who lives ten miles southwest of Fulton, yesterday logrolled herself into an 18-foot well, saved her 2-year-old child from drowning, and climbed to the top, holding the infant in her teeth by its dress.

The babe was playing near the well top, which had been left open, and stepped off backward, falling into the four feet of water at the bottom.

Mrs. Stephenson heard the child's cry and turned in time to see it fall. Rushing to the well she grasped the rope and without a moment's hesitation shot to the bottom, the rope whistling around the windlass.

Her quick action enabled her to prevent the little one's death in the chilled water, and, holding the child in her arms, she called to other children who had followed her to the well, to summon aid.

The father of the child was not at home, nor were there any neighbors near by. Fearing that she would be seized with cramps if she remained in the water, Mrs. Stephenson, in desperation, fastened her teeth in the baby's frock and climbed the jagged wall of the well with the aid of the rope.

The mother fainted on reaching the top, but was soon revived and the child was restored to life.

"JOHNNIE" MET LON LUTHER

Editor of the Versailles Leader Visited in Pueblo.

John A. Hannay, editor of the Versailles Leader, who attended the national democratic convention in Denver, Colo., has a three-column article in this week's issue of his paper descriptive of his trip, from which the following is clipped:

"From Colorado Springs we continued our journey to Pueblo, whose chief attraction is former Morganites. The first acquaintance we met after crossing the street from the depot was Lon Luther, formerly editor of the Lamonte (Mo.) Record. For the past five years he has resided with his family in Pueblo, holding a responsible position with the Mountain Ice and Coal company.

"Lon directed us to convenient and comfortable quarters, and 'put us on' generally. To Mr. Luther and wife we are indebted for many courtesies, including a drive over that interesting city of 60,000 inhabitants.

ROBBER SHOT AND KILLED

Failed in an Attempt to Hold Up a Chicago Saloon.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Leonard Smith, alias William Fay, was shot and killed today in an attempt to rob a West Madison street saloon.

It was broad daylight and the street was occupied by many pedestrians, when Smith, accompanied by two companions, entered the saloon.

Their command to hold up his hands was met by Lawrence McGraw, the bartender, with a fusillade of shots, one of which lodged in Smith's abdomen. The other men were arrested.

Burial of Mrs. Cheek.

The funeral of Mrs. J. R. Cheek was held from the family residence, 312 West Morgan street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon and burial was made in Crown Hill cemetery. Rev. S. S. Martin officiated.

NOTICE TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to the Daily Democrat-Sentinel who receive their paper by mail should remember that a recent ruling of the post-office department makes it obligatory on the part of the paper to discontinue sending copies to those who are three months in arrears on their subscription.

This ruling is being followed strictly by the Democrat-Sentinel and those of its subscribers who fail to get the paper will understand why it does not come.

They should not blame the management, because it has no option in the matter, but should at once take steps to pay what is past due, together with at least three months in advance, and get the paper started again.

CONDEMN'S PARTY METHODS.

The Kansas City Journal, which is known country-wide as a staunch and militant republican paper, ever ready to do battle for its party and always advocating its principles, seems to have grown disgusted at the brutal and cowardly manner in which the St. Louis Globe-Democrat and the Kansas City Star have started out to conduct their campaign against Mr. Cowherd, and has very plainly told those two papers some truths.

The Journal is accustomed to the usual unfair tactics made use of by its party's organs, but draws the line at the flagrant violations of decency now being used, and isn't afraid to express itself on the subject. Here is what it says:
The effort to discredit William S.

Cowherd by representing that he entered into a compact with a notorious St. Louis corruptionist in the late primaries and thereby secured his nomination is not likely to succeed. Mr. Cowherd is not a new man in politics. For years he represented his home district in congress. His record, public and private, has been keenly scrutinized time and again by his political opponents in the hope of finding something unsavory that could be used against him in his campaigns, but always without success. Here in Kansas City and Jackson county where he is known best he enjoys the respect and confidence of the people in a high degree, as was evidenced by the large vote accorded him and the insignificant showing made by his competitors in the primary contest.

There is no good reason to believe that after maintaining his reputation for honesty and integrity all these years Mr. Cowherd would at this late day descend to disreputable methods to promote his candidacy. Unless much better evidence than has thus far been produced is brought forward to prove the charges and insinuations against him, the fair-minded citizens of the state will simply decide that he is being slandered by unscrupulous personal enemies. This outcome will naturally do Mr. Cowherd more good than harm, especially here at home among his friends and neighbors, where, if anywhere, he should be given decent treatment, and where any other kind of treatment will be vigorously resented.

Mr. Cowherd should be defeated for governor of Missouri honestly and fairly, because he is a candidate of the democratic party and stands for democratic principles and policies. Personally there is not a cleaner or more honorable candidate in the field anywhere, in any state or party, and the harder he is fought on personal grounds the more likely he is to be Missouri's governor. There will be an energetic campaign waged in this state this year, and the republicans have an excellent chance of winning. If the foes of the democratic ticket do not confuse the issues and make sympathy and votes for the democratic candidates.

DOINGS AT UTICA NEXT WEEK.

Political birds of a feather flock together with about the same regularity as the fowls of the air. Representative Sherman, whose mysterious origin as a figure in national politics, is still unsolved, and whose nomination for the vice presidency by the republicans will always remain a humorous event of this campaign, belongs to a very clannish flock. The close political corporation of which he is a member, with a good many silent partners in the realm of trusts and high finance, is Balky, Standpat & Co.

Mr. Sherman was picked out of twenty years of congressional obscurity by the republican reactionaries and forced upon a willing party to emphasize the fact that they had regained supremacy over Roosevelt and the party he had tried desperately to carry along with him.

Mr. Sherman is a close friend of Cannon, Fairbanks, Fordney and others of the old school who favor reversing the tariff upwards and who cautiously wink at ship subsidy. He has a speaking acquaintance, rather distant, with the head of the ticket on which he is running, whom he met a few weeks ago in Cincinnati. Whether they will ever meet again is a question we would not venture to answer in advance of the November returns. He probably knows Mr. Roosevelt by reputation and the latter probably suspects him in the same way.

After his nomination this same Sherman retired to the quietude of Utica, N. Y. "Uncle Joe" has been out to see him, and chuckle over that "little diddies" at Chicago. Fordney and the others have praised him from a distance.

In a few days now, Aug. 18, we believe, is the day, to be precise, they are planning to "notify" the sage of Utica that for a few months he is to have a translucent look at the vice presidential chair. It will be a big jubilee of Balky, Standpat & Co., at which a number of the members and more of their friends will be present. It is to be a regular levee of the escaped reconcentrations. Doubtless "Uncle Joe" will be there. And what could be a more fitting tribute to the sage of Utica than the choice as chairman of the notification committee of Michigan's reactionary, Senator Julius Caesar Burrows, the man selected by the standpatters to sound the keynote as the temporary chairman of the Chicago convention, and who did their bidding to slap Roosevelt in the face by omitting his name entirely from his prepared address?

Surely, this will be a regal time for the house of Balky, Standpat & Co.—this exclusive affair out at Utica next week.

HICKS THE GROCER

What Killed the Adjutant.

A good story from the regimental journal of the "Fighting Fifth" concerns Col. then Capt. FitzRoy, who dated back to 1860. FitzRoy was possessed of an air-gun, and one afternoon he took a shot at an adjutant, a bird which, being an excellent scavenger, is protected from injury by a fine of 100 dollars. Several people saw the bird fall, but heard no report. There was, of course, a hubbub and a court of inquiry was ordered to investigate the bird's death.

As luck would have it, FitzRoy was appointed president of the court, the finding of which was duly recorded as follows: "The court, having carefully investigated all the evidence brought before it, have come to the conclusion that the bird died of stroke." (Signed) Phil FitzRoy, Captain and President."—Allahabad Pioneer.

Words Failed Him.

He was a cowboy, and some comparative strangers had stolen his horse. His friends rallied round him, and, anxious to give him every chance, trundled up a barrel for him to stand on while he gave out his views on the matter. He was known as a gifted swearer, and a large audience had assembled in the hope of hearing something special. He got up on the barrel and looked round him. Then he drew a deep breath, and, with a sigh, climbed down again. "Boys," he said, sadly, "it's no use. I can't do justice to it."

Straight from the Shoulder.

"Oppression, gentlemen," shouted the orator, "like a boa constrictor or anaconda of gigantic size and immeasurable proportions, wraps the foul coil of its unwieldy body round the unfortunate patriot's soul—and reverberating as the nocturnal thunder rolling in the midnight empyrean—finally to break its tyrant neck upon the iron wheel of independence, or, on the other hand, forcing him first to desperation, then to madness, in the end to crush him in the hideous jaws of mortal death."

Origin of the Bolster.

The Crusaders are said to have brought home with them the bolster, and, according to Dr. Cantlie, their wives, in ignorance of the only rational way of using the article (i. e., placed lengthwise as a support for the back of a person when lying on his side), and not knowing what else to do with it, put the bolster where it is still found on the beds of those who have not learned the wisdom of discarding it altogether—under the pillow!

What He Needed.

"My eyes bother me a good deal, doctor. Do you think I need stronger glasses?"
"No. I think you need weaker glasses—and fewer," was the blunt answer.

BEESE ROUT THE MAIL MAN

RUNAWAY HORSE SPRINKLES
LETTERS ALONG INDIANA
HIGHWAY.

WAS BATTLE ROYAL ALL THE WAY

Carrier's Identity Baffles Fellow Employee on His Return to Office—Condition Serious, but He Will Recover.

Logansport, Ind., Aug. 14.—William Slagle, rural mail carrier on route No. 24 out of this city, was attacked by a swarm of bees while covering his route and was so badly stung that when he returned to the post-office fellow employees were unable to recognize him.

Goaded to fury by the attack, Slagle's horse ran away, and the mail was scattered along the roadway for two miles.

The bees settled about the fleeing horse, repeatedly stinging Slagle and the animal. In an effort to bat the bees from his face and head, Slagle dropped the reins. The light rig swayed from one side of the road to the other, dumping out the mail.

The fleeing animal finally outdistanced the bees and slowed down to a walk. First assuring himself that the bees had gone, Slagle turned the animal about, drove back and picked up the scattered letters. As a result of the attack his condition is serious.

Temperance Societies Illegal.

The clergyman reported complacently the twenty-seventh New Year pledge taking.

"Excellent work. A glorious day," he said. "And yet do you know that there was once a time when all this sort of thing was criminal?"

"No!"
"Yes. It was in India, at the beginning of the English occupation. Medical men believed in those days that a white man could not live in India without drinking. They thought he needed a half-pint of whisky, or its equivalent, every day. And they insisted on his taking it."

"Temperance societies, total abstinence and the signing of the pledge were things forbidden in India. Such things were thought injurious to the white man's health out there. Hence, to go in for them was to be arrested, fined, imprisoned, banished."
"But to-day in India total abstinence is encouraged, for it has been found that the abstainer stands the heat far better than does the man who drinks."

Open Air for Young Consumptives.

Under the auspices of the Alland Institution for Consumptives an interesting experiment was made at Vienna during the summer in open-air treatment for young children infected with tuberculosis. Forty-eight little patients whose ages ranged between four and 13 years were treated for five months with very gratifying results. At the end of this time 40 children were sent home apparently quite cured, six showed very slight traces of the disease and only two were in about the same condition as when they entered, while their general health was better.

These last eight cases had already reached a serious stage when the treatment began. All the children had gained in weight from two to 18 pounds. The experiment will be continued with more patients next year.

Good Idea for Street Names.

Street names spelled out in bright colors or figures and imbedded in cement walks are one of the most recent innovations in American city architecture. The plan has been tried in Kansas City on all the large boulevards, the main idea being not to disfigure the street and houses by the usual printed signs that are placed on the walls of corner houses or fastened to the lamp posts at the intersections of the streets. The name of each boulevard is spelled out in letters from six to eight inches high, formed with stones about one-half inch square laid in the cement sidewalk, similar to the tile or ceramic mosaic work which is now so frequently seen in the vestibules of buildings.

Why Girls Don't Marry.

There can be no doubt that nowadays there are fewer girls who are prepared to undertake the risks attendant upon a rush into matrimony. The 1907 girl with brains is discriminating, and has no liking for leaps in the dark; before she consents to marry she wants to be reasonably sure of the future.—Cassell's Saturday Journal.

The Dear Old Days.

Touched by his sad story, a Harrisburg woman recently furnished a meal to a melancholy looking hobo who had applied therefor at the back door. "Why do you stick out the middle finger of your left hand so straight while you are eating?" asked the compassionate woman. "Was it ever broken?"

"No, mum," answered the hobo, with a snuffle. "But during my halcyon days I wore a diamond ring on that finger, and old habits are hard to break, mum"—Harper's Weekly.

"They have all sorts of notions as to just how they want their advertisements to look, and the slightest deviation causes trouble. Not long ago a gang of us painted a big billboard in the center of which was a large pickle. We thought we had done rather a neat job of it, but the firm for whom we did it refused to approve, saying there were not the required number of bumps or warts on the pickle."

"The upshot was that we had to paint out that pickle and put on a new one, with the spots for the bumps marked so there could be no mistake. I never see a pickle sign now that I do not want to stop and count the bumps on it."

EIGHTY TENTS PITCHED

FOR THE 400 SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS IN CAMP AT LIBERTY PARK.

ELDER OGDEN HEARD LAST NIGHT

On the Subject, "Why Are There So Many Denominations?"—Service Today Was Led by the President, C. C. Lewis.

Over four hundred people are in camp at the Adventist camp grounds at Liberty park. About eighty tents are pitched. Three large tents are used for public services. Elder G. F. Haffner, of Oklahoma, conducts public services at 11 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. in German, to which all Germans are invited.

Among the speakers not previously mentioned as upon the grounds is W. S. Wrightman, of Kansas City, lecturer on religious liberty. Mr. Wrightman occupied the 11 o'clock hour today on his favorite theme.

Prof. B. E. Huffman, of College View, Neb., is in charge of the educational work of the denomination in the union conference, which includes the state of Missouri.

Dr. George A. Droll, who has an establishment in Kansas City for administering the Battle Creek, Mich., sanitarium treatments, is on the grounds, and gives instructions on the habits of living so as to avoid sickness. The doctor is to speak at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

The following resolution was adopted by rising vote at today's session of the conference: "Resolved, That we express our gratitude to the park board of the city of Sedalia for the free use of Liberty park for our meetings."

Elder George B. Thompson, of Washington, D. C., speaks tonight on India. All are invited.

Beginning on the Sabbath, services at the setting of the sun. Sabbath school tomorrow at 9:30; preaching at 11 and again at 8 p. m. All services open to the public.

Elder A. R. Ogden, of Wichita, Kan., spoke last night on the subject announced, "Why Are There So Many Denominations?" Using Rev. 14:6-12 as a text. This small body of believers, less than one hundred thousand in the world, has not hesitated to undertake the herculean task of giving to the whole world in this generation the "everlasting Gospel," mentioned in these verses, with all that is involved therein. When this task is finished the end will come.

This task would not have fallen to so late a generation had it not been for apostacies that have even from Paul's day been continually coming in to hinder the progress of the Gospel; as also the heresies that have attached themselves every now and then to all the precious doctrines of the Bible. A dangerous heresy is now current, to the effect that it makes little difference what one believes, if only he is sincere in it. There was a time when all the world believed that the earth was flat. It was a scientific heresy, and the sincerity with which it was held did not make it true.

The prophetic signs of the Lord's coming are now almost fulfilled. What remains unfinished is the task of giving this Gospel of the kingdom to all the world for a witness. Wyckliffe, Luther, Wesley, Williams, Campbell, William Miller and many others, have made their mesurless contributions to this mighty task, and to the completion of this mighty work the Seventh-Day Adventists are prayerfully addressing themselves.

This morning's vesper service at the camp grounds was conducted by Pres. C. C. Lewis, of College View, Neb. The familiar invitation of the Master, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden," was the Scripture lesson presented. Its setting was pictured by the speaker. A burden of unrest, care, anxiety, and heaviness of all the burden of sin, lay upon the crowds gathered to hear the young Teacher of Galilee. The great reformer whose preaching to prepare the way for the Messiah now lay in Herod's prison. A part of the answer that had been sent to him by the Savior was, "The poor have the Gospel preached to them." That God had permitted John to be cast into prison was no evidence that He was not with him. The servant of God is to show trust, no matter how dark the circumstances.

But the Master's thought goes out, not only to those gathered before Him, but to all who labor and are heavy laden, in every land. What is meant by the invitation "Come?" It means the yielding of the will to God. What does "take My yoke" mean? It means to enter God's service, to whatever He has for you to do. "Learn of Me." What are we to learn? Meekness and lowliness of heart. The result: "Ye shall find rest unto your souls." When shall we find rest? When we come and take His yoke. The yoke is a symbol of labor. Finding rest in wearing His yoke seems to be a contradiction in terms, but there is a blessed experience in finding it so. If we do these things—come, take, serve; and learn these two things—meekness and lowliness, we shall find that blessedness for lack of which there is so much nervous unrest, and without which there can not be found real rest in this world. Come, receive and learn, and ye shall find rest.

A Prominent Banker in Fort Smith States That Muco-Solvent Saved His Life.

In an interview with one of the best-known bankers in Fort Smith, he stated that on a trip north the wonderful properties of Muco-Solvent were brought to his notice, and he commenced to take it, having at first little hope of deriving any good therefrom. His lungs had been in a congested condition for years, and all that he had previously done seemed to give him no relief. The results, however, obtained from the use of Muco-Solvent were so rapid and so sure that he not only brought away a few packages of Muco-Solvent, but has never been without it since.

A government bacteriologist finds in his tests the Muco-Solvent kills the diphtheria and typhoid germs. It is said to be an absolute preventive and cure for grippe, scarlet fever, croup, quinsy, sore throat, etc., and that in cases of ordinary colds a spraying of the nose and mouth gives instantaneous relief besides prevents to a certainty the serious development of the horde of maladies usually preceded by the sensation of having the nostrils stuffed, inability to breathe free, etc.

A well known physician, a man of profound knowledge, and withal broadminded, stated to us that Muco-Solvent—whatever it was—gave him the only immediate relief he had ever experienced when used on himself for a severe cold, accompanied by a stopping up and congestion of the nasal passages. Muco-Solvent is the only known infallible cure for catarrh. The proprietors of the drug say that they will give $1,000 to any person who, using Muco-Solvent according to directions is not absolutely cured of catarrh in from thirty to ninety days.

One thing is absolutely sure, that if Muco-Solvent is generally used at the first slight indication of cold, fever, etc., that the majority of illness of which colds are the precursor will be avoided. During the conference of the Evangelical Association of Wisconsin, the statement was made and subscribed to by fifty-one of the leading clergymen attending:

"Zion's Church, Milwaukee, Wis. When our conference was gathered at Neenah, Wis. we found that community enthusiasm over the wonderful success that Muco-Solvent was obtaining among them in the cure of diphtheria, grippe, croup and throat troubles generally.

"At that period, accordingly, many of our members procured a supply with the result that we have since decided never to be without it; and indeed we have so fully convinced ourselves of its merits and efficacy that it now becomes a pleasant duty to indorse Muco-Solvent and urge its adoption in every household.

"It is true that our mission and labors are chiefly related to the spiritual welfare of mankind, yet we hold that this does not preclude our action but rather enjoins it in any secular movement the object of which is to alleviate suffering and preserve human life. From this standpoint, and considering the serious nature of the ills that Muco-Solvent has successfully vanquished, we are but serving the interests of humanity when we state that any mother who keeps it constantly within her reach has a prompt and unfailing means to avert all serious danger from the acute maladies referred to. We are satisfied that when the merits of this remedy are more widely known it will even be considered a duty to have it in every home for such times of emergency."

"Revs. G. F. Kickhoefer, Th. Shau-e, J. C. Brendel, 417 N. Butler street; A. F. Habermann, Otto Barowski, 696 Harris street; W. Koten, Wm. Kolander, Geo. H. Shaible, Ch. Schneider, Gust. We understand that Muco-Solvent is very generally becoming in use throughout the south, and that Dan Wilcox is in shape to supply family packages, 50c and $1.00.

ACTORS DROVE BOY MAD

PERFORMERS ON A SHOWBOAT FRIGHTEN LAD INTO INSANITY.

NOW HE IS PUZZLE TO THE POLICE

Dressed as Imps They Pursue Him Until He Leaps in River—Nowadays Wanders About Dressed as Indian.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—Rejected by his father, George O'Leary, 15 years old, of Bath, Ill., who, it is alleged, was driven insane by grotesquely-attired deck hands on a showboat, is proving a problem to Illinois officials. He is now in the Peoria county jail, where he will be tried the second time as to his sanity.

The boy, clad in Indian costume, fringed and beaded khaki, buckskin gloves and flimsy blouse, became troublesome on the streets of Peoria three days ago.

For two nights he remained in jail, smashing the furniture in the detention room to bits, tearing to shreds the bed clothing and his own garments and twisting the mattress springs into a shapeless mass. Then he was freed, but the middle of the next night threw a brick into a department store window.

O'Leary shipped as a deck hand on a show boat, and one night the performers, garbed as imps and other fantastic creatures, pursued him about the boat until he leaped into the Illinois river. He was rescued.

In the last two years he has been arrested in many Illinois towns and returned to his home. In a fit of anger he once shot an older brother through the arm with a rifle.

ELOPED, THEN SUICIDED

Unhappy After Wedding to Tight-Rope Performer.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—Mrs. Hosier, wife of a physician of Spring Valley, had just finished reading a letter from her daughter, Vera, confessing that she regretted her elopement with William Johnson, a tight-rope walker, when she received a telegram announcing that the girl had committed suicide at New Berlin, ten miles west of this city.

The girl was the adopted daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hosier. When 17 years old she became infatuated with Johnson, a member of a carnival company, and ran away with him. Until she confessed her unhappiness her whereabouts were not known. The body was sent to Spring Valley for burial.

COW GAVE BLACK MILK

Peculiar Result Follows Eating of Blackberries.

Fort Jervis, N. Y., Aug. 14.—The accidental straying of a cow into a blackberry patch has opened up a line of possible experiments which may end with red, white and blue milk.

Andrew Barclay reports that his cow got into a two-acre lot of choice blackberries and was busy eating the berries when found. That night, when milking time came Barclay was surprised to find the pail filled with an inky fluid that tasted like milk.

In the interest of science Barclay is going to experiment by feeding his cow red raspberries, oranges and watermelons to see if the milk color is controlled by the food of the cow.

Rush Back to Work Again.

W. S. Rush, who was "so badly beaten up" that he was "confined to the Pregeze hotel," resumed work for the Warner Sedalia Fuel and Feed company this morning. Mr. Rush says he was not as badly hurt as is continually reported, and instead of having been removed home in carriage yesterday, he was perfectly able to walk.

A SUIT FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

McGrew Milling Co. Against W. J. Menefee, of Sedalia.

Alleging an infringement on a copyright, the McGrew Milling company, through attorneys Barnett & Barnett, today instituted suit in the Pettis county circuit court for $5,999 against W. J. Menefee, a groceryman and feed dealer of West Second street, and also praying for an injunction restraining defendant from selling or disposing of products bearing the name of that sold by plaintiff.

Plaintiff states in the petition that it is the owner of a company mining what is known as "McGrew's Elective Lump" coal and retains a copyright for the sale of such fuel.

Further allegations state that defendant some time ago contracted for the sale of plaintiff's product, but later began selling an inferior quality of coal, which he has advertised and still advertises as "Menefee's Elective or Electro Lump" coal thus deceiving customers and damaging plaintiff to the extent of the amount sued for.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY PAYS A MILLION TO THE STRIKERS.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

A quarter of a million dollars was today paid to the Canadian Pacific railroad strikers by Paymaster McPherson. Over 2,000 men were in line at the Merchants bank, says a Winnipeg, Manitoba, dispatch of the 13th. With the amounts paid out at other points in the west, the sum distributed was nearly $1,000,000. The total number of strike breakers at work in the city is 200. The company hopes to increase this number from day to day.

If it is stated that no strike benefits will be paid before Wednesday, August 26, three weeks from the beginning of the strike.

At Medicine Hat sixteen strike breakers from the Santa Fe railway were brought in today. The Chinese restaurant proprietors have refused to serve meals to these men, and all are boarded in the yards.

A general meeting of all unions of the Canadian Pacific railroad train service with local lodges at Kamloops has been called in that city for the purpose of discussing the strike situation on that line. This will be the first meeting of trainmen of the Pacific division regarding the strike and is significant.

FORGOT HER HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Atchison Woman Succumbed to the Charms of Romance.

An Atchison woman had company coming to dinner, and the house to clean, so at nine that morning she began the cleaning by putting new paper on the pantry shelves.

When the company came at one o'clock there was no sign of the hostess or dinner, so they began to search the house to find her. At last their search was rewarded. She was sitting on a pantry shelf, reading a continued story in a newspaper, and when the guests looked offended because of the lack of preparations made for the meal, she showed them the following paragraph, which began the story, and which had tempted her to drop her work and read more:

"O, Frances, Frances! Cynthia's low rich voice shook with emotion. Birney Gates turned his head in her direction and met her eyes. Curious gold-green eyes they were, shadowed by long, black lashes—languorous and enticing. For one moment he gazed as if under a sudden spell. Later the girl dropped her fan and he stooped to pick it up for her. As he handed it back his fingers touched hers and the contact thrilled him strangely."

Now do you blame her? Didn't that promise to be more interesting than wiping off sugar bowls, soup ladles and porridge pots?—Atchison Globe.

Japanese Woman Philanthropist.

Miss El Imura, a young Japanese woman, has come to this country on her own initiative to study methods for teaching the deaf, the dumb and the blind. She has been for several years a teacher in the state school for the deaf and dumb in Tokyo. Her mother was the first Christian in her district and her daughter was brought up in the same faith.

She states that the deaf and dumb children in Japan are born chiefly in the homes of the rich families, where cousins intermarry in order to keep the money in the family. Blind children, on the other hand, are found mostly among the very poor. These defective children are looked upon as disgracing their families and are as a rule much neglected in their homes.

Miss Imura's object is to start an industrial school for the deaf, dumb and blind in Japan. In the hours not devoted to visiting the institutions of America she is engaged with an assistant in preparing conversation books in Japanese, Korean, Chinese and English.

CELEBRATE IN BULGARIA

The 21st Anniversary of Accession of Ferdinand as Prince.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 14.—Celebrations are being held today throughout Bulgaria to commemorate the twenty-first anniversary of the accession of Ferdinand as prince of Bulgaria and the consequent freedom of the country from Turkish thralldom.

During Ferdinand's reign Bulgaria has made many advances toward a wider and freer liberty. Moslems, Jews, Roman Catholics, and the various sects of the Eastern Christian churches now live in amity. The credit of the nation has become better than ever before.

The only blot on Ferdinand's reign was the assassination of the prime minister, Stambouloff, to whom Ferdinand owed his throne. Stambouloff was called the "Bulgarian Bismarck," and was a statesman of great ability. His cold-blooded murder on the streets of Sofia is as yet unpunished, and there is still a suspicion in many quarters that Ferdinand shared in the responsibility for the crime.

MOTHER'S HATE FOR GIRL

INFLUENTIAL LONG ISLAND WOMAN TURNED FROM HER BABY.

NOT WILLINGLY SEEN HER SINCE

Impelling Cause a Mystery, Daughter, Now 20, Loses Parents—Strange Case, Indeed, From the Effete East.

New York, Aug. 14.—A remarkable story of a rich woman's hatred for her child—a hatred that has lasted for twenty years, since the girl was born—has become known in Babylon, L. I., an aristocratic suburb. Mrs. Egbert V. Strong, who has a stately white mansion, wealth and an influential husband, whom she loves, turned away from her baby when it was born and has not willingly looked upon the child since. Why she harbors hate, where love should be, none can explain, unless it be that she is jealous and wants her husband's undivided love.

The father has brought mother and daughter together thrice, hoping the mother's natural feeling would crowd out the cruel emotion that impelled the disregard for the girl. Each time he failed. The mother cold, unbending, refused to look upon her child.

Marion Goodale Strong, the daughter, who carries her 20 years with the grace and beauty expected in a girl well reared and naturally endowed, has nothing in her appearance or personality to repel one. Quite the contrary, she is attractive, vivacious and pretty.

She has these attributes, though through her life has run the one sorrow that might easily have taken from her the charm of gentle womanhood.

Mr. Strong seemed charmed when he learned the family secret was out, and was inclined at first not to discuss it, then as his own love for his neglected child rose uppermost he seemed irresistibly impelled to speak. He said:

"My daughter is as good and pure and sweet a girl as there is in the world. Any mother might well be proud of her, yet my wife drove her away as a babe. Our home is closed to her, but this shall not continue. I have built a house in Babylon in which my daughter shall rule."

"I have looked for the motive in my wife's attitude for twenty years. I, the one man who should know, am in the dark. I only know she is not insane. It is selfishness, I guess."

Marion has for fourteen years lived in the family of R. J. Hunt, Transamburg, N. Y. Mr. Hunt is president of the local telephone company, and his wife, a deeply religious woman, is an invalid, with a font of love for the girl, made homeless by such undue circumstances.

"Yes," my mother will not see me," said Marion, "but I try to be happy just the same. I love my mother. She will not let me go to her, but she is my mother and I pray for her and think of her always."

"I don't blame my mother so much," she continued softly. "You see, they made a mistake in not taking me back to her when I was a little baby. I have heard that my grandmother turned from my mother when she was born, just as my mother did from me. But they brought the baby back right away, and grandmother took it right into her arms."

"With me," continued Marion, with a little sigh, "they were not so wise. They kept me away from mother until I was 6. Then her heart had hardened, I suppose. She turned away from me."

"I never saw her but twice after that. The last time was in the fall of 1906. Father took me to Babylon, determined to bring mother to reason."

"I went to her on my knees. I begged her to tell me why she hated me, why she denied me love and home, but she coldly replied to me: 'I cannot explain why I cannot have you near me,' mother said, 'but you must not stay. Your presence is impossible.'"

"When I pleaded on she said: 'No, it can never be. No one knows that I have a child. It would create a scandal. You must leave the house and never return.'"

Mrs. Strong is a handsome woman, bearing a strong resemblance to her banished daughter. After she repelled the baby, Mr. Strong placed the child with relatives in Brooklyn. Six years passed and not once did the mother ask about her baby. But, at the expiration of this time, Mrs. Strong was induced to visit the relatives, not knowing Marion was there. The child was apprised that her mother was coming and was arrayed in her best frock.

When Mrs. Strong saw the child in the household, she remarked, "My, what a pretty child." When she learned it was her own baby, she turned away and rushed from the house. The Hunts later learned of the odd situation and Marion has lived with them since.

Moon Regarded as a Deity.

Among the early peoples of Mesopotamia all of the heavenly bodies were regarded as deities, but the moon, because of the variety of the shapes which it assumes, was the chief of them all. Special reverence was therefore paid to it and some of the oldest and most important of the Babylonian temples, as at Ur and Haran, were devoted to its worship. Thus the crescent, the symbol by which the moon god was represented, was supposed to have the power to avert evil, and then together with the star it formed the word for incantation.

CRACK OF MANY RIFLES

RESOUNDING AT CAMP PERRY, A FAMOUS RANGE ON BANKS OF LAKE ERIE.

THE NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Today Began Its Annual Tournament —Major S. W. James and Privates John McGrath Would Like to Be There.

Sandusky, O., Aug. 14.—The crack of many rifles is resounding from Camp Perry, the famous rifle range on the banks of Lake Erie, where today the National Rifle association began its annual tournament. The contest follows the annual matches of the Ohio State Rifle association and preceded the tourney of the national board for the promotion of rifle practice, and the triple attraction has brought to the beautiful camping grounds some of the best shots of the nation.

Today's program opened with the championship company team match, at 200 and 500 yards, open to teams of five men from any company of the United States army, any ship of the navy and any company or organized militia from any state or territory. Some of the best shots in the world are competing.

Other matches to be commenced this afternoon are the inter-club match for the rifle club championship of the United States; the life members' match for the championship of the National Rifle association; the state secretaries' match, open to state secretaries of the National Rifle association, and the press match, open only to newspaper men.

The most important event on the program is the championship regimental team match, open to teams of six from regiments of the army, navy, marine corps, state militia, West Point and Annapolis. This contest will be commenced Monday morning.

The first prize in this match is a handsome championship trophy, valued at $500. It has been won twice by the Sixth regiment Massachusetts volunteer militia, and if this team is again victorious the trophy becomes its property. Next in interest is the company team match, commenced today, in which the prizes are cash and medals. Of the individual matches, it is difficult to determine which is the most interesting, the Leach cup, the Wimbledon cup or the president's match. They are shot under different conditions, the Leach cup match being seven record shots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, while the president's match includes everything from the skirmish to the 1,000 yard stage. Both the Leach and the Wimbledon cups are historic and the winner of the president's match receives an autograph letter from the president, in addition to a substantial cash prize. There are medals and cash prizes in each match.

Another very interesting event is the championship regimental skirmish match, open to teams of six. When won twice the beautiful silver trophy becomes the property of the winning team. Last year this match had fifty-one entries. There is also a championship revolver team match.

The great features of the summer at Camp Perry will be the matches of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, of which Robert Shaw Oliver, assistant secretary of war, is president, and which are held annually under the provisions of an act of congress approved March 2, 1902. Following the close of the National Rifle association events, next Thursday, the contestants will have two days' practice, preliminary to the beginning of the national matches on Monday, Aug. 24.

The principal match will, of course, be the national team match, for which congress has provided the trophy. It is for teams of twelve, open to the army, (2), navy, marine corps, military and naval academies, and the National Guard of the various states and territories, including the District of Columbia. In this match there will probably be forty entries. The second team receives the famous Hilton trophy and the third the Soldier of Marathon, while there are six cash prizes for the six best teams. Each member of the winning team receives a medal. Next in importance are the national individual rifle and the national pistol matches, in both of which there are a number of cash and medal prizes. Last year there were 648 competitors in the individual rifle, and 250 in the pistol match, and more are expected to enter this year.

Major William B. Martin, of the New Jersey National Guard, who was tied for the highest score in the Olympic rifle matches in England, will be one of the contestants in the national matches and is expected to give additional proof of his supremacy as a rifle shot.

CLOCK NEVER RUNS DOWN

Owner, in Thirty-One Years, Has Wound It 11,315 Times.

Hallsville, Mo., Aug. 14.—J. H. Freeman, living near here, has a clock which has been in his possession thirty-one years and has run continuously during that period.

The mechanism of the clock requires that it be wound each evening. Freeman has attended to this personally, and says he has wound the clock 11,315 times in thirty-one years. The clock ticks every second, which means, since it has been in Freeman's household, it has ticked 95,332,800 times. The clock was thirty-years old when Freeman bought it at a sale.

TAYLOR PLEADS IGNORANCE

He Knows Nothing of Returning to Kentucky for Trial.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 14.—William S. Taylor, when shown the dispatch from Louisville last afternoon regarding his probable return to Kentucky for trial in the Goebel murder case after the election, said:

"I don't know anything about it. That's all I have to say and that's all I want to be reported as saying. And it is the truth. I do not know anything about it."

Almost Too Much.

After James A. Rector had run the 100-yard dash in 9.25 seconds at Charlottesville, Va., in the Southern intercollegiate races, thereby going the distance one-fifth of a second faster than any other human being has ever been credited with running it, he received hundreds of congratulatory telegrams from loyal University of Virginia alumni from all parts of the country. Among them was one from his father, who now lives at Hot Springs, Ark., but who was born in Virginia. The paternal telegram read as follows: "May your head keep pace with your heels in the race of life." Rector read and reread the telegram, and then handed it to "Pop" Lammigan, his trainer. The latter perused it with great care. "Well," he exclaimed, "you could give Solomon a handicap and beat him in a walk if it did."

Grand Collection.

"Yes, sah," said the old colonel, "the prohibition law sho' did go into effect down in Georgia, sah."

"That so, colonel?" responded the Chicago friend. "Well, I suppose you had a great number of wire corkscrews left over."

"I did that, sah. I had them by the bushel."

"And did you throw them away, colonel?"

"Oh, no; I stretched them out and made a wire fence and a lightning rod, sah."

A Reason Now.

"Oh, Arizona will be admitted all right," said the gentleman from that territory.

"Been turned down pretty regularly, hasn't it?"

"Don't let that worry you. They'll need the name for a battleship now."

What Becomes of Them.

Philosophers arise upon all sides—pessimists, idealists, stoics, pythagoreans, epicureans, positivists, empiricists and intuitionists. They arise and flap their shimmering wings and they fade into inert innocuousness. The tidal wave of time—clammy, cruel and inevitable—sweeps over their forgotten biers. Their souls are absorbed in the thin ether of the illimitable cosmos. They speak their little piece, dodge the ever-hurting egg, and then shut up forever. Alas!

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 14.—Spring-of the National Association of Amateu-extending through tomorrow, the visitors are assured of two days of

The national regatta in Springfield leaving its management to a few men sections, except Saratoga.

that may be necessary to make racing oarsmen and visitors comfort-ring up rowing clubs, and has resulted in an unprecedented entry list.

A feature of the regatta is expected to be the championship singles with Bennett, Greer, Miller et al. on the line. Apropos of this race Bennett has never had any professional or other coaching whatever; it shows that this is not absolutely necessary to reach rowing pinnacles when a man can rise to the amateur championship by studying himself.

The championship senior eight's to be rowed tomorrow promises to be a spectacular event, and it would not be surprising if the lake record for the mile and a half in senior eight's is broken. Among the crews represented will be the New York Athletic club eight, the Minnesota club of St. Paul, the Vespers of Philadelphia, the Riverside of Boston and an eight from Winnipeg, Man.

In senior fours New York will be represented by three crews, and there are also three entries from Philadelphia, Baltimore and St. Louis.

One feature of this year's national regatta that must satisfy both conraces will be rowed in one heat—ten eights can be started at once, if necessary.

MORE WOMEN READERS IN CARS.

Change in Recent Years Noted by
New York Writer.

The increase in the proportion of women who read in elevated and surface cars in the past ten years is striking, says the New York Press.
A rough computation shows at least one in every five occupies herself with book or magazine and about one in ten with a newspaper. The reason for the difference is that the average woman prefers to do her newspaper reading at home. Just why must be sought in the grand answer to the eternal feminine, unless the explanation be that it is harder for a woman to hold a paper steady than a book.
Another reason may be that, what with purse and parasol or umbrella, a woman passenger seldom has both hands free. But the percentage of readers among women in cars has grown steadily in a decade. Ten years ago the proportion was about one in fifty, to make another rough calculation from memory. And this is taking them in bulk, shoppers and callers as well as women who work.
The proportion of car readers among working women alone is much greater.

HAD FUN WITH THE INSPECTOR.

Swedish Girl Was No Smuggler, but She Made Trouble.

A girl who has just returned from studying sloyd in Sweden got even with the New York customs inspector who was too inquisitive regarding her purchases on the other side. Although she was a mild and innocent appearing person, yet the customs inspector seemed to suspect deceit in her appealing glance.

So when he came across what the girl told him was a nest of Swedish baskets he seemed to think he had surely caught his victim red handed.
He opened the basket and somewhat to his surprise discovered another.

He opened it and kept on opening baskets until the seventeenth was reached. "Here," his triumphant glance seemed to say, "is where I make good." The seventeenth and last basket, not much larger than a silver dollar, was opened and—discovered empty. Then he had the pleasure of replacing them all, while the girl took malicious pleasure in looking on.

Tobacco at Yale.

Of 331 men in the present freshmen classes at Yale, 152 use tobacco in some form. Dr. F. J. Born, medical assistant in the university gymnasium, compiled the figures.

He found that 54 freshmen use a pipe only, seven smoke cigarettes only, five nothing but cigars, 25 use pipes and cigarettes, nine smoke pipes and cigars, and 52 use pipes, cigarettes and cigars.

Of the 152 men, 113 began at preparatory school to smoke and 12 others began before then, so that 82 per cent. of the smokers started before they went to college.

Last year in the freshmen classes at Yale there were 147 smokers, of whom 77 per cent. began at preparatory school. From these figures Dr. Born feels himself justified in making the statement that the majority of smokers begin before entering college, in spite of popular opinion. There is no mention of chewers.

ALLOWS VOTARIES NO PEACE.

Unfortunate Indeed Are Those Unduly Superstitious.

The superstitious woman started to go down town, but found that she had forgotten something. It was hard work to get her to go back for it, but when she did she sat down for a few minutes to "take the curse off" before going out again. On the sidewalk she passed a cross-eyed man, and had hard work to keep from spitting three times over her left shoulder. The first car that came along was No. 13. She let it go by, and waited eight minutes for another. On the way down town she remarked to a friend that she "had been in excellent health this summer."

Instantly she was obliged to loosen her glove and rub her bare palm on the wood of the bench before her. As she and her friend were walking on Twenty-third street some thoughtless person darted between them. The superstitious woman was much disturbed and worried over the thought of a coming separation.

That night her husband upset the salt-cellar. She insisted on his taking a pinch of the salt and throwing it over his shoulder. When she discovered for the right she discovered that she had been wearing one stocking wrong side out all day. It was a sign of good luck, and it allowed her to go to bed happy. But some time in the night a dog howled dismally under her window. From that moment she has been looking for a calamity.
Nothing will make her believe that there will not be a death in her immediate family.—New York Times.

EARLY NATURE FAKERS

BIRDS' BATTLE OF CORK WAS A FEARSOME AND WONDERFUL CONTEST.

FOUGHT IN SKIES ABOVE THE CITY

This Was in Year 1621—Twenty Years Later the Nerves of Dublin Citizens Received a Severe Shock.

Apocryphal of a bird battle which occurred lately in the south of Ireland, the strange stories of some weird and wonderful bird battles that were fought, one of them in the skies above the city of Cork, in October, 1621, and the other over Dublin on Christmas eve of 1641, accounts have appeared in the press, says the Boston Globe.

The chronicler of the battle which was fought in the skies above the city of Cork in October, 1621, prefaces the story by admitting "to report strange or admirable accidents is subject both to danger and disgrace—to danger, in that they be held as prodigious or ominous; to disgrace, in that they may be reputed fabulous." But, he says, he does not fear disgrace because he is able to free himself from any suspicion "by certificate of letters from right honorable persons in Ireland, where the accident fell out, to right honorable persons at court, and divers in London at this present; as also by the testimony of right honorable and worshipful persons and others of good reputation now in London, who were eyewitnesses, beholding the same during the time it continued."

Thus fortified with the corroborative testimony of right honorable and worshipful persons the story of this strange battle of the birds may be told.

They were starting and they began to muster in the opening days of October. Some, we read, came from the east, others from the west, and so accordingly they placed themselves eastward and westward of the city. The citizens more curiously observing, noted that during the time they assembled the stares of the east sought their meat eastward, as the stares of the west did the like westward, no one flying in the circuit of the other.

"These courses and customs continued with them until the 12th of October, which day, being Saturday, about 9 o'clock in the morning, being a fair and sunshine day, upon a strange sound and noise made as well on one side as on the other, they forth with at one instant took wing, and so, mounting up into the skies, encountered one another with such a terrible shock as the sound amazed the whole city and all the beholders. Upon this sudden and fierce encounter there fell down into the city and into the river multitudes of stares, some with wings broken, some with eyes picked out, broken, some with eyes picked out, some with their bills thrust into the breasts and sides of their adversaries in so strange a manner that it were incredible, except it were confirmed by letters of credit and by eye-witnesses."

After the first shock of the onset the conflict was renewed with redoubled fury, and the "most admirable and violent battle" was continued till a little before night. The following day was Sunday, and as apparently the "stares" were Sabbatharians, the battle was discontinued, but on Monday it began again with most distressing savagery. The birds "mounted in the air and encountered each other with like violent assault as formerly they had done, and fell into the city upon the houses and into the river, wounded and slaughtered in like manner as is before reported; but at this last battle there was a kite, a raven and a crow, all three found dead in the streets, "rent, torn and mangled." So ended the Birds' Battle of Cork, which, it may be as well to remark again, is spoken to by "right honorable and worshipful persons."

Twenty years later, on Christmas eve, 1641, the nerves of Dublin citizens received a very severe shock. "It was growing dark, such an innumerable number of sea gulls, ravens and crows assembled together croaking and picking over our heads in so strange a hideous manner that thus continued till 6 o'clock at night; being an hour, especially at this time of the year, that fowl are seldom seen or heard."

Nay, the shooting of many muskets and of divers pieces from the castle could not affright or scare them away; nay, we, on my conscience, says the annalist, in a tone of pious terror, "were more afraid of them than they of us. What it should mean I can not divine, but the eldest man in Dublin never saw the like. But by this we may have good cause to conjecture that God, by His apparitions, fortells His judgment in signs and wonders, without speedy repentance, we have cause to fear will surely come upon us." There is something that is almost funny in the quaintly expressed terror with which the chroniclers record the strange happenings in Cork and Dublin when the seventeenth century was young, but we must remember that they lived in a simple age and held a simpler faith than ours.

Who has not heard of the fame of the Kilkenny cats? "The Kilkenny cats," says a correspondent of one of the papers, "were not illustrative of an Irish practice. The gentle cat fight was introduced by Hessian soldiers in 1798. At that time Kilkenny was garrisoned by them. They amused themselves in barracks by tying two cats together by their tails and throwing them across a clothesline to fight. An officer hearing of the cruel practice, resolved to stop it. As he entered the room one of the troopers, seizing a sword, cut the tails in two as the animals hung across the line. The two cat escaped minus their tails through an open window, and when the officer inquired the meaning of the two bleeding tails being left behind in the room, he was coolly told that the two cats had been fighting and had devoured each other all but the tails.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success."—Arlington Pharmacy.

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has yawning or drowsiness or heavy falling of the eyelids, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cure in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement of each of its ingredients, the very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing are invited to consult by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and is treated as confidential. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

St. Louis Live Stock Market.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

National Stock Yards, Ill., Aug. 11.—Cattle receipts 5,500, nearly all natives. Market active and strong on all kinds; nothing here as good as yesterday's $7.50 steers, the best to reach $7. Packers as well as eastern shippers were good buyers for all killing grades; steers look only 10c higher than the close of last week; good butcher cows and heifers 15c to 20c higher. Stocker and feeder trade continues slow, although values are well sustained under moderate supplies. Estimated receipts for the remainder of the week moderate, and a strong market seems assured.

Hog receipts 7,500, quality fair. Shippers were active buyers early in the day, and forced prices up 10c to 15c above yesterday's basis. They bought the bulk of their hogs from $6.85 to $7.00, the latter price representing top. Packers were out of the early market entirely, but late in the day bought what was left at about yesterday's prices, paying $6.50 to $6.80 for most of their hogs. The bulk of all the hogs sold today were put over the scales at $6.65 to $6.90. The close was rather dull, in anticipation of increased receipts, owing to this advance; and increased receipts late this week will operate the same as they did last week, in forcing a lower market. It will only be a temporary decline, however, and we suggest keeping good hogs at home on any break, but if present prices are sustained, keep them coming.

Sheep receipts 6,000; general market 10c to 15c lower on sheep, and 25c lower on lambs. Best lambs today sold at $5.85. Best mutton sheep at $4.25. Choice yearling ewes sold at $5.25. We look for smaller sheep receipts in the next few days, and probably firmer values. —National Live Stock Commission Co.
